Does your dog hide under the bed when there's a thunderstorm, fireworks, loud music, or a crowd? Does your cat run behind the couch when you pull out the vacuum cleaner or have visitors over?

Our CBD pet treats are just what you and your fur baby need!

Our CBD oil pet treats are super soft and easy to chew. They're made without any artificial flavors, sugars, or byproducts, and work for dogs and cats alike. With 150mg of CBD oil per bag of treats, pets love the natural flavor and botanicals, while pet parents see their pet calmer and with noticeably lower stress and anxiety. These treats help put your and your pet's mind at ease.

Pain relief is just one of the many benefits of CBD oil, so these treats are especially helpful if your fur child is older and has aches and pains in their muscles and joints. Another benefit is sleep aid, so you and your furry friend can rest easy.

Why wait for the aches and pains to go away on their own when you can get instant pain relief with our Maximum Strength Relief Rub.

Whether your aches are chronic or arise occasionally as the result of physical activity, this pain relief cream is for you. Simply rub the cream where you need it and feel the pain fade away.

This pain relief rub is unique because 10% of the formula is EMU oil, which helps condition the skin, as well as reduce and prevent wrinkles so your skin looks younger and more plump.

EMU oil also has anti-inflammatory properties, so combined with the natural calming effects of CBD oil, this rub is an excellent alternative to painkillers. With 500mg of pure CBD oil per 3.8oz jar, your aches will be gone before you know it.

Apply the cream to any painful areas no more than 3 or 4 times a day for the best results and maximum strength.

Radiation Max Relief

CBD Cream 2oz/40mg Full Spectrum

CBD FREEZE

Pain Rub Balm 1oz 50mg

Radiation therapy can do wonders for the healing process, though in doing so it can harm your skin. Protect your largest and most visible organ from burns and discomfort with our maximum strength radiation relief cream!

To combat the skin burns, discoloring, and scarring that can occur as a result of radiation therapy, the benefits of our CBD oil-based radiation relief cream include anti-inflammatory agents and natural pain relief.

With 40mg of full spectrum CBD oil per 2oz jar, it offers maximum pain relief.

Safe for use before, during, and after radiation therapy. We recommend applying the cream to the affected area at least twice per day for maximum benefits, though it's safe to use as needed as well. Using this radiation relief cream before and after radiation therapy will help your skin repair even faster.

This product features:

- 40mg full spectrum CBD oil per container
- maximum pain relief benefits
- skin soothing botanicals
- anti-inflammatory benefits

Got aches and pains? Freeze them away with our CBD Freeze Pain Relief Rub Balm!

Whether your aches come from arthritis, surgery, injury, or the soreness of everyday living, our pain relief rub has the perfect amount of cooling sensation to ease you into comfort and relaxation.

All-natural and with 50mg of pure CBD oil, our freeze formula is non-greasy, lasts for hours fighting muscle soreness, and can even help you recover from surgery faster. When you massage this pain relief rub into your skin, you can feel the benefits of CBD oil more deeply.

Used by therapists, chiropractors, and doctors on their patients.

For best results, apply to the painful affected no more than three to four times daily.

This product features:

- 50mg pure CBD oil
- easy, at-home cryotherapy
- natural pain relief

CBD Massage & Anointing Oil

4oz/20mg

Max Strength ROLL-ON

CBD Pain Rub 3oz 100mg

A massage has never felt so good!

When you use our Relaxing CBD Massage Oil and Anointing Oil, your massage is elevated from normal to nirvana.

Our CBD massage oil is especially beneficial for those who get massage to aid in tough, persistent musculoskeletal pain. In combining the pain relieving power of CBD with soothing all natural botanicals and the luxurious skin-softening agents in the oils, this massage oil is unrivaled in quality.

With the benefits of CBD aiding skin and muscles in pain relief, discomfort will be on its way out the door before you get up from the massage table.

Chiropractic clinics, physical therapists, acupuncture specialists, and massage therapists especially love using our top notch full spectrum CBD oil on their clients.

It's easy to use. Simply squeeze a small amount of oil into your hands, rub your hands together, then gently massage the desired area.

Your body, mind, and soul will all thank you!

This product features:

- 40mg full spectrum CBD oil per container
- maximum pain relief benefits
- skin soothing botanicals
- anti-inflammatory benefits

When you need the benefits of CBD oil on the go, our quick and easy roll-on CBD gel is the perfect solution!

Our maximum strength CBD oil stick allows you to apply full spectrum CBD oil to problem areas simply by twisting off the cap and using the roll-on applicator. Hands-free application means your hands stay clean and dry. This rub is our most convenient way to use topical CBD yet!

Each 3oz bottle contains 100mg of full spectrum CBD oil, which can be applied as needed for aches and pains. This pain relief rub is ideal for those with an active lifestyle. Use on joints, including knees and elbows, as well as the back, neck, shoulders, and other muscles.

Due to its fast action relief, CBD oil is a secret weapon for athletes who need maximum strength pain relief during high performance activities.

- authentic Dead Sea salt

CBD Night Repair Cream

3.8 oz – 20mg CBD Oil

Neck & Décolleté Anti

Aging CBD Cream 1oz – 20mg CBD Oil

Repair and replenish your skin while you sleep with our Night Repair Cream!

Even normal, everyday living can wreak havoc on your skin. Our CBD oil-based skin repair cream is designed to help your body naturally repair damage from everyday environmental factors.

CBD has been clinically shown to accelerate skin cell growth, which stops fine lines and wrinkles in their tracks. Your skin will feel softer and smoother after just one night of wear.

This specially formulated blend also contains other botanicals your skin needs like aloe vera and shea butter to help moisturize and restore elasticity. With 20mg CBD per jar, it works for all skin types.

Simply apply the cream to your face and neck at night before you go to bed and wake up with your skin rejuvenated and fresh.

What you won't get with this product is a greasy, heavy, or oil feel to your skin.

This product features:

- 20mg of CBD oil
- non-greasy feel that leaves your skin hydrated and smooth
- natural skin repair
- softer, smoother, plumper skin
- excellent moisturizer
- soaks in overnight to make restoring your skin easy

Wrinkles don't just stop at the face. Make sure your neck and chest are protected with our Neck and Décolleté Anti-Aging CBD Cream!

Your chest and neck are often some of the first areas to show wrinkles and signs of aging. Our neck and chest anti-aging cream is designed to restore elasticity to these visible areas by tightening. This anti-aging cream is formulated to increase hydration where you need it most.

With 20mg of pure CBD oil, our anti-aging cream allows you to restore youthfulness and smooth radiance to your skin without leaving a sticky or greasy film. Our formula absorbs fast so you can get back to doing the things you love—and look good doing them.

For the best results, apply the neck and décolleté cream to clean skin up to twice per day.

This product features:

- 20mg of pure CBD oil
- natural anti-aging properties
- ultra skin firming formula
- sun damage repair

ORAL SPRAYS

Anti-Stress & Relaxation

CBD Oral Spray 8ml – 52mg CBD Oil

When it's time to wind down at the end of the day, sometimes your brain doesn't get the message. If you hate it when your brain keeps running through your endless to-do list and every worst case scenario imaginable when you're just trying to get a good night's sleep, our Anti-Stress and Relaxation CBD Oil Oral Spray can help.

One of the many benefits of CBD oil is reducing anxiety by helping your brain adapt to and process stressors by regulating glucocorticoids. Translation: CBD oil is a natural and safe way to calm your brain and promote relaxation when you need it most.

Decreased stress can also lead to increased metabolism, lower blood pressure, and decreased cardiovascular problems. CBD oil is good for mind and body.

Oral absorption is the fastest way to get much-needed nutrients into your body quickly and effectively, so you'll notice results from the oral spray almost immediately. We know stressors and anxiety triggers can pop up anywhere and anytime, so this bottle is designed for fast access, easy-to-use on-the-go relief.

Simply spray up the six sprays into the mouth daily or as desired. For best results, spray under the tongue, then hold for 30 seconds before swallowing. If the spray nozzle becomes clogged, run under warm water.

This product features:

- 52mg of 99% pure CBD oil
- yummy fruit fusion flavor
- fast absorption
- easy to use on-the-go portability

Sleep Support

CBD Oral Spray 8ml – 52mg CBD Oil

Have trouble sleeping? Ease into dreamland with our Sleep Support CBD oil oral spray.

Sleep aid is just one of the many benefits of CBD oil. In addition to CBD, our specially engineered formula has other natural sleep aids, including Valerian root, which has been clinically proven to provide safe sleep support and fight insomnia.

Oral spray is designed for fast CBD absorption so you'll see results in just a few short minutes. Our Sleep Support CBD spray is non-habit forming, so you can take it every night and wake up feeling refreshed every morning. Our all natural oral spray is a great alternative to harsh chemical sleep aids.

The yummy fruit fusion flavor is the perfect sweet treat before bed. Six quick sprays is all it takes! If taken every night, one bottle of the sleep aid lasts 30 days.

Simply spray up the six sprays into the mouth daily or as desired. For best results, spray under the tongue, then hold for 30 seconds before swallowing. If the spray nozzle becomes clogged, run under warm water.
